This Week's Stewardship Reflection

One of the freedoms God has given us is the freedom to change our minds. The two sons in Jesus' parable exercised that freedom when their father asked them to work in his vineyard one day. The first son refused, but then changed his mind and went. The second agreed to work but never showed up. In the same way, the sinners who responded to the preaching of St. John the Baptist obeyed God when those religious leaders who seemed to be holy refused to actually do so, and so the repentant sinners were the ones who entered the Kingdom of God.

We Christians know we should do the will of God the Father, but we tend to be fickle and not follow through on our intention to obey God's will. We need God's grace to be constant and to help us develop "the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus," as St. Paul wrote to the Philippians. As Christ gave up the glory of heaven to die on our behalf, so we have a challenge: "Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory, rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves."

If we accept that challenge, and change our minds from serving ourselves first, it will inevitably change the way we use the time, the talent and the treasure entrusted to us.

Trust in the Lord

The wind's not always at our back, the sky is not always blue.
Sometimes we crave the things we lack, and don't know what to do.
Sometimes life's an uphill ride, with mountains we must climb.
At times the river's deep and wide, and crossing takes some time.
No one said that life is easy, there are no guarantees.
So trust in the Lord continually, on calm or stormy seas.
The challenges we face today, prepares us for tomorrow.
For faith takes our fears away, and peace replaces sorrow.

ST. AL'S NEWS

THANK YOU

Last week's Welcome Back BBQ was a fun-filled and heartwarming gathering of parishioners, family and friends. Everyone enjoyed the generous assortment of salads and desserts, and the food was plentiful. All our children were entertained by the colourful set up of games, drawing, photo-taking, and the impressive live music corner, complete with keyboard and guitar. The great amount of leftover burgers, hotdogs and cake were immediately taken to The Old Brewery Mission, a refuge serving our homeless in the Greater Montreal area for more than 100 years. We would like to express our deepest gratitude to everyone who played a part in helping put this event together. A special thank you to Joanne & Sal Russo, Emma & Davide Lisi, and their families for organizing the event. Many thanks to the Giglio, Bardo, Trotter, Lacombe, Caligiuri and Orrell families as well, from set-up to clean-up you helped put together a most superb afternoon!!!

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

There will be a joint parish assembly with both St. Aloysius and St. Brendan's parishioners to be held on Saturday, October 8th, 2011, beginning at 10:00AM in St. Brendan's Parish Hall, located at 5740 15th Ave. Everyone is strongly urged to attend, as the discussion will address the future of both parish communities. Please remember that one loses the right to complain about decisions made if one chooses not to participate in these discussions being held.

H.O.P.E.

An important meeting is scheduled for all those who signed up to participate in our upcoming Labre House Dinner Project. We will meet this morning, Sunday, September 25th, at our Parish Centre immediately following Mass. Thank you to those who offered to volunteer. Your gifts of time, love and labour in this project truly reflect the light of Christ's love.

MEETING – CHANGES TO THE LITURGY PRAYERS

All our liturgical ministers and those involved in our Sunday liturgies, i.e Choir, Lectors, E.O. Ministers of Communion, Catechists, Sacristans, & Ministers of Hospitality, are strongly encouraged to attend Mass and a special meeting, both to take place at St. Brendan's Parish on Tuesday, September 27th, beginning 7:00PM. We will be looking at the changes being made to the prayers we say and sing at Mass. These changes take effect the first Sunday of Advent and these changes involve all ministers. Please make it a priority to attend.
