This Week's Stewardship Reflection

As we enter the Fall season, we realize it is the season for harvest, not only for agricultural crops, but also for the spiritual fruit we should have produced during the liturgical year nearing completion. God's people have often failed to produce the harvest they should.

Such is the case with the ancient Israelites, whom Isaiah compared with a vineyard which produced only sour, wild grapes. Jesus used the vineyard image, but introduced tenants who refused to turn over his share of the harvest to the landowner. They will be replaced by people who will obey the terms of the agreement, and others will be welcomed into the kingdom of God. How do we measure up with the harvest of spiritual gifts we should develop and turn over to God?

Lest we lose heart, St. Paul reminds us that we are to "have no anxiety at all." Indeed, even our requests should be offered to God "with thanksgiving." We have a fuller revelation of God's will for us, and a never-ending stream of grace from the sacraments. If we keep our minds on what is true, pure and excellent, "then the God of peace will be with you."

As The Day Ends

As the day ends and the sun goes down, and the sun sheds its last rays of light
I think to myself as I look around, "Have I spent my day living right?"

As the day ends and the sun goes down, I thank the Lord for this day I have owned
And as the night steals in without a sound, I feel His presence and know I am not alone.

As the day ends and the sun goes down, I count my many shares and blessings
And recall what's right can be found, In His wonderful teachings and lessons.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

My Dear People,

As you know, we have scheduled a General Assembly on Saturday, October 8th, 2011 at 10:00AM in St. Brendan's Parish Hall. This will be a joint general assembly between the two parishes of St. Aloysius and St. Brendan's, as we need to begin a dialogue which I hope will be open and frank to deal with two very important issues:

- 1) the possible merger of the two parish communities
- 2) a Mass schedule that will be suitable for all concerned

I encourage as many of you as possible to attend this very important assembly. Please come with an open heart so we can altogether look at how to best serve the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Yours Truly,

Rev. Paul Pomkoski

CELEBRATION OF FR. PAUL'S 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS ORDINATION TO THE PRIESTHOOD

On Saturday, October 23rd, 2011 at 2:00PM in St. Brendan's Parish, a special Mass will be held to celebrate Fr. Paul's 25th year of Ordination, followed by a reception in their Parish Hall. If you have not yet picked up your invitation, please do so at the back of the church and R.S.V.P by Monday, October 14th by calling Linda or Terry, 514.376.4537. In lieu of gifts, a goodwill donation to help Fr. Paul fulfill his lifelong dream of retracing St. Paul's steps to the Holy Land would be greatly appreciated.

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED

Please include in your prayers WENCESLAO VARGAS, beloved father and father-in-law to Merlen & Stephen Baxter. Merlen received the news of her father's sudden passing just last week. Our heartfelt condolences go out to her family and loved ones for their sad loss. May his soul rest in peace.

A GIFT

One of our very own longtime and devoted parishioners, JACQUES BEAULIEU, just recently had published a book that he authored, entitled Is It So? A teacher and Rhodes Scholar himself, Mr. Beaulieu offers his insight and examines his faith as a Catholic Christian through an analysis of the Gospels. There are several copies available at the back of the church this morning for those who would like to own a copy. There is no charge for the book; Mr. Beaulieu wishes rather, to invite you to place a donation to go towards our parish. A great gift from Mr. Beaulieu to his St. Aloysius family. Thank you Jacques and congratulations!!

PRAYER: JESUS HOLD ME IN YOUR ARMS

We have received many requests for a copy of this beautiful prayer JACK CALIGIURI shared with the congregation 2 weeks ago at the occasion of the Baptism of his son, JACOB. Many thanks to Jack's wife, TANYA, decorated printouts of the prayer are now available at the back of the church for those wishing to have a copy. Thank you Tanya and Jack for your time and thoughtfulness!
