This Week's Stewardship Reflection

In today's Gospel, Christ says the religious leaders of the day, the Scribes and the Pharisees, do not practice what they preach. They seem to be using their positions of power for their own glory. Christ uses this example to teach a lesson – "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

In the second reading, St. Paul and his companions are in Thessalonica doing the Lord's work – proclaiming the Gospel, and, for the ability to do so, Paul says, " We give thank to God unceasingly." They are there to serve the Lord, to show the people the truth of the Gospel and to rejoice with them as they convert to Christ. Talk about stewardship in action!

There's nothing wrong with being appreciated for our talents. But as Christian disciples and stewards of God's many gifts, we must always remember that all good things come from Him, and we must live our lives in humble service and in gratitude for all He has given us. –

The Rose

It is only a tiny rosebud, a flower of God's design;
But I cannot unfold the petals with these clumsy hands of mine.
The secret of unfolding flowers is not known to such as I
The flower that God opens so gently, in my hands would fade and die
If I cannot unfold a rosebud, this flower of god's design, how can I have wisdom to unfold this life of mine?
So I'll trust in Him in His leading each moment of everyday
And I'll look to Him for His guidance each step of the pilgrim way.
For the pathway that lies before me, my heavenly Father knows
I'll trust Him to unfold the moments just as he unfolds the rose.

*ST. ALOYSIUS' NEWS*

THANK YOU FROM FR. PAUL

I want to take this opportunity to thank you from the bottom of my heart all of you who came and shared in my celebration this past weekend. I was truly overwhelmed by the tremendous turnout and the tremendous generosity of your gifts that will help me to fulfill my lifelong dream of journeying in the Footsteps of St. Paul next year. The gathering was truly a deep expression of what community is all about and the spirit that prevailed truly emphasizes that our church is alive and well. A deep thank you and appreciation to all those who assisted behind the scenes in making this celebration a truly faith-filled, joy-filled event.

A special thank you must go out to the Organizing Committee (Connie, Linda, Denise, Dorothy, Cynthia H., Manon, Lulu and Terry) and I also want to especially thank the young men and women who truly showed stewardship by serving (the food) to all those who attended. The other groups that I wish to thank are the Knights of Columbus, both Choirs, the Altar Servers (from both parishes) and all those who helped in the kitchen. I also want to truly thank the Wardens (from both parishes) for their support in helping to make this event a reality. Your financial aid was truly appreciated. If there is anyone that I have forgotten, I thank you also.

May we continue to live this spirit each day by living out our Christian stewardship commitment here on earth. In doing so we will help build the kingdom of God.

Your loving pastor, Fr. Paul
