This Week's Stewardship Reflection

Today we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. And while Christ is King of the World, He is also a kind and loving shepherd who cares for his flock.

The first reading today focuses on the Lord's caring nature. "I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. I myself will give them rest." The Responsorial Psalm reiterates those sentiments, praising the Lord for His incredible generosity. He gives us what we need and more, again, like a shepherd who cares for His sheep. Meanwhile, in all three of the readings, there is an eschatological element. Each one, in varying degrees, speaks to us of the second coming and the final judgement that will take place when the Lord does return in glory. The Lord is our shepherd. It is, therefore, our responsibility as His disciples to use what He has given us wisely. We all have time, talents and treasure, and we are called to use those gifts to the best of our ability, not by squandering them, but by taking ownership of them and making the Master proud.

On judgement day, the faithful shepherd of God's gifts will be with those on the right, and with the words, "Come, you are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world," we will be ushered into the heavenly kingdom.

Christ the King

The Feast dedicated to Christ the King was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925 as a spiritual weapon against what were considered destructive forces of the age. The year 1925 was also the 16th centenary of the First Council of Nicaea, which clearly taught the unity of Christ with the Father and, therefore, with the Father's rule.

The Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Universal King, was originally celebrated on the Last Sunday of October. More recently it has been moved to the final Sunday of the Church year. This is its proper context because the church year ends with Sunday Scripture readings emphasizing the end times and the fulfillment of the pilgrimage of the church and of its Lord. This Special Sunday becomes a sort of "final Lord's Day." Other than the liturgical celebrations in churches, the Feast of Christ the King has attracted no particular popular religious traditions.

H.O.P.E. CHRISTMAS WRAP-UP

On Wednesday, December 14th, at 7:00PM in our Parish Centre, volunteers of all ages are invited to join in helping wrap Christmas gifts that are delivered annually from St. Aloysius Parish to the patients and residents of the Montreal Extended Care Hospital. The more helping hands, the merrier!

H.O.P.E. CHRISTMAS DELIVERY OF GIFTS

On Saturday, December 17th, volunteers are needed to deliver gifts to the Montreal Extended Care Hospital located at 5155 Ste. Catherine St. East, just east of Viau, north of Notre-Dame East. We will meet at the Parish Centre at 9:30AM to pick up the gifts, or volunteers may meet us at the hospital at 10:00AM. Please see Cynthia Hansen or email hope@saintaloyusius.ca if you are interested in helping out in either the wrap-up/delivery.

CAROLLING AT THE MONTREAL EXTENDED CARE

On Saturday, December 17th, there will be a Christmas Carol sing-a-long at the Hospital following the delivery of gifts. The sing-along will take place in their downstairs hall and will last approximately 30-40 min. We welcome both children and grown-ups to participate in this event. We would also like to encourage new volunteers to join in with us. Everyone is welcome. If you are interested please see Joanne or fill in the sign-up sheet at the back of the church. Thank you!!

CHRISTMAS BASKETS

This Christmas season, the communities of St. Aloysius and St. Brendan's will share in a common mission to help needy families in the East End of Montreal by providing Christmas Baskets. These care packages consist of food & gifts that were delivered to up to 200 families last year alone. The event is one that welcomes everyone to take part in whatever capacity they can, so please mark your calendars with these important dates and make every effort to help bring the Love and Joy that is Christmas to our brothers and sisters in need. The following take place at St. Brendan's Parish Hall, 5740 15th Avenue.

- 1) Friday, Dec. 16th: Sorting & Packing begins at 9:00AM. If packing is not completed that morning, we will continue 7:00PM, same day.
- 2) Saturday, Dec. 17th: Delivery of baskets begins at noon.

We really appeal to volunteer drivers to help with the delivery, as it takes a long time to deliver to everyone. The more drivers we have, the sooner families can receive their baskets.

PASTORAL HOME CARE

If you or someone you know would like to receive a visit to have communion brought, or to share some time in prayer and company, please call our office and leave your name and number.

ST. ALOYSIUS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Everyone is cordially invited to our St. Aloysius Christmas Party, which will take place in the downstairs hall of Ste. Louise-de-Marillac Church, on Sunday, December 11th, at 2:30PM. Entertainment includes a heart warming Christmas play to be presented by our children and teenagers, and a visit from Santa is scheduled as well!! For the purposes of planning and ordering meals, the Social Committee now has sign up sheets at the back of the Church, for those of you who plan to attend. Please note there are three separate sign up sheets:

- 1) Names and number of family members attending
- 2) Gift Exchange: Names of those wishing to participate
- 3) Children's List: For children 14yrs and under who will be attending.

A very warm welcome to all our new parishioners and their families. Hope to see you there!!!

Have a wonderful week everyone and keep up the excellent work! ☺

"Truly I tell you, just as you did it to the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did it to me."

- Matthew 25: 40
