This Week's Stewardship Reflection

As Christ's disciples, we are called to recognize all of our gifts as God-given – our time, our talents, and our treasure and to use them accordingly, putting them at the service of the Lord.

Today's readings remind us that it is the Lord whom we serve. In the gospel, when Jesus rebukes the unclean spirit, "Quiet! Come out of Him!", the gospel tells us, "The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed."

It is amazing. God has authority over the whole world, and He has seen fit to bless us with so many gifts, to give us life and family and faith, time and talents and treasure. It is only fitting that we recognize those gifts as God-given and give of them in gratitude to the One who has blessed us so.

So, we live to love and serve Him in all we do. Whether we are a mother or father, brother or sister, married or single, doctor or lawyer, writer or signer, it is our duty as Christian stewards to live our lives to the praise and glory of God. All that we do ought to proclaim His goodness to those around us.

In the first reading from Deuteronomy, the writer reminds us of this call. Speaking of prophets whose role it is to proclaim the Good News, he says, "But if a prophet presumes to speak in My name an oracle that I have not commended him to speak, or speaks in the names of other gods, he shall die."

Indeed, it is God whom we serve. We are called to live not for our own sake, but for the sake of the Gospel, being sure that through all we say and do, we help others see God.
