PENTECOST SUNDAY

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

John 20: 19-23

Reflection:

- Today we celebrate Pentecost when the Spirit was given to the disciples. It is the birthday of the Church, the day when the timid and uncertain apostles were transformed into bold preachers of Jesus and his resurrection. The same Spirit is still as active in the Church today, transforming it - and us - into better missionaries.
- Jesus came to the disciples at the time of their great fear. He came to them although the doors were locked. He comes to me too, wherever I am locked in by fear, and he gives me his peace. I think now of those areas in my life where I am afraid. I imagine Jesus coming and standing before me and saying "Peace be with you". I stay there for a little while, looking at Jesus, hearing his words of peace, feeling calm return to my heart.
- And Jesus breathes upon me and gives me the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of peace and truth and joy. I can turn to this Spirit for help whenever fear threatens to overwhelm me in my life.

Prayer:

Holy Spirit, I welcome you now into my small heart. Let today be 'the first day of the week' for me, which means the first day of my renewed creation. Let us celebrate this together. Amen.

To do so, please call the office at 514-351-3281 and leave your name with Joanne, as well as those of any other family members who will be attending. This will help facilitate contact-tracing should the need arise. Joanne requests to please not send any messages to the parish Facebook page to reserve your place.

Important reminders

- In compliance with required health safety measures, entry to the church will be restricted to the main doors on Honoré-Beaugrand St. (corner Ste-Claire St.)

Important reminders (cont'd)

- Departure: After Mass, everyone must exit the church by the side doors located at the north-end of the building (either side of the sanctuary).
- As announced at Mass, please remember that singing during Mass and gathering at the back/front of the church either before or after Mass, are not permitted.
