FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

The Proclamation of John the Baptist

Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

Reflection:

- Today as we conclude the Christmas season, we again hear about “expectation” in our Gospel selection. Throughout this year we will read from the Gospel of Luke, and in today’s passage he describes how the people were “filled with expectation” that John the Baptist might be the Messiah. Luke wants to show Jesus as the fulfillment of all that was promised and prophesied in the Hebrew Scriptures. John the Baptist stands as a figure uniting that tradition with the person and the mission of Jesus. Jesus will fulfill the expectation people had for a Savior—if not quite in the way some expected it. The signs accompanying the events of Jesus’ baptism ought to tip us off that something important is happening here. The heavens opening, the voice of the Father commending his “beloved Son” to us, and the presence of the Holy Spirit, all point to a moment of revelation. We’ve probably all put Christmas behind us—except for the bills to be paid—and no doubt we’re ready for some quieter, less hectic days. But the life of a Christian must still be lived in constant “expectation,” for the Kingdom is breaking in, and we must be ready to witness to it.

Prayer:

Lord, Thank you for making me one of your children, born in water and your Spirit. Help me to listen to your voice in my life and remember each day the happiness of sharing the bond of baptism with you. With your help, I can stay faithful to your calling. May I be a light in the world for you. Amen.

BUILDING A HYBRID PASTORAL APPROACH

Intergrating In-Person and Digital Ministry

New times, new needs, and a new generation requires a new approach to reveal Jesus Christ to young people and to accompany them in their personal and spiritual growth as disciples.

We promote a hybrid comprehensive approach that allows us, as a Church, to better respond to the social, cultural, spiritual, and religious needs of all generations, especially our young people.

This hybrid approach is a vision and practice of ministry that is more community-centered, while focusing on individuals, their needs, availability and the context that they live in.

Formation sessions are available for free with the option of accreditation with the Institut de Formation Théologique de Montréal.

Sessions run Tuesday evenings, January 12, 19, 26, and Feb. 2 from 6 p.m.-9 p.m. EST.
