THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Beginning of the Galilean Ministry

Luke 1: 1-4, 4:14-21

Reflection:

- In the gospel it is implied that when Jesus had returned to where He grew up, He read a scroll for the people there. The details of this passage tell us much about the ordinary life of Jesus. It was his custom to go to the synagogue on the Sabbath; though He took issue with details of the Law proclaimed there, He chose to join with his community in the worship of God. It was a way fulfilling his mission of sharing the Word of God. As He read, the people in the synagogue spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. It is a moment of grace and promise, as He brings the good news to his own people.

Prayer:

Lord, You have done wondrous things in our life and for that we are grateful. In Your name we lift everyone, the poor, the captives, the oppressed, and the blind; to be able for us to hear the good news from You, to proclaim liberty, to be released, and to be blessed with sight. Open our hearts to the suffering of others and use us a vessel for Your greatness. May Your mercy be a fuel in our burning hearts of service and joy for You. Amen.
